DAY CARE CENTER

The Day Care Center at University Church was conceived out of a desire of our church to be relevant to the needs of our community. We seek to do this by making our facilities available for multiple use, and by offering competent care for children by a qualified staff of teachers. Maximum enrollment in the Center is fifty-seven, and an indication of the need served by our Center can be seen in the fact that we maintain full enrollment throughout the year, often with a long waiting list.

The Center operates on a twelve-month basis, closed only during the Christmas week, other holidays, and the last two weeks in August. Its hours are from 7:45 A.M. to 5:15 P.M. daily. It is located on the first floor of Eubanks Education Building.

Our objective is to provide a healthy, comfortable atmosphere for group living geared to the needs and abilities of two, three, four, and five year olds. In meeting our objective we have followed the guidelines of the N.C. Welfare Department, and having met their standards, are licensed by that agency.

A further service provided by our church is in the form of scholarship aid in the amount of $665.00, which will be used by several children during the year.

Mrs. Sandra Eggleston is the Director of our Day Care Center and can be reached at 929-7267 for further information about its program or concerning enrollment procedures.

OPPORTUNITIES FOR STUDENTS

University Church believes that students are persons, not numbers, and that it is important what happens to their lives during their college days. To this end we seek to provide opportunities for personal growth and real community where the Christian faith is taken seriously.

THE STUDENT FORUM meets in the Tatum Room on the second floor of the Education Building at 9:45 on Sunday morning. As the name implies, it is a forum or discussion group with leadership provided by Drew Henry, a second-year student at Duke Divinity School. The topics for discussion are selected by the students on the basis of their interests and needs. A light breakfast is prepared each Sunday by Albert and Evelyn Graham.

THE UNDERGRADUATE FELLOWSHIP meets in the Tatum Room on Sunday evening at 6:00 P.M. An evening meal, prepared and served by group members, affords participants an opportunity to get to know one another on an informal basis. UF Program is developed by the students themselves in an attempt to take seriously the world in which we live from the perspective of the Christian faith. The dimensions of concern cover every aspect of our individual and corporate lives. Two retreats, one in the Fall and another in the Spring, help to create a feeling of fellowship and belonging. Friendship, guidelines for living and a growing faith are by-products of Undergraduate Fellowship. Mrs. George Nicholson, Dr. Ron Reitz, and Drew Henry are advisors to this group.

THE CHANCEL CHOIR welcomes all students who enjoy singing to become members of the choir. Rehearsals are at 7:30 P.M. on Thursday and 10:00 A.M. on Sunday.

THE WESLEY FOUNDATION at 214 Pittsboro St. is the center for the campus ministry of the United Methodist Church. The Chaplain-Director, the Rev. Bob Johnson, maintains offices there and is available for counseling. The Foundation offers regular services of worship during the week, theological study groups, a lounge for study and conversation, and an art gallery featuring the work of student and regional artists. Friday night suppers are held monthly at the Center and special retreats and conferences will be announced during the year.

CHURCH MEMBERSHIP is available for students who may wish to have the closer ties afforded by full participation in our fellowship and activities.

SERVICES such as teaching in our Church School, counseling a youth group, ushering, helping with community projects are also welcomed and eagerly sought.

ADULT STUDY OPPORTUNITIES

- HOUSE BIBLE CLASS - a popular lecture class of long standing. It is named after Chancellor Robert B. House, who was its teacher for many years. Dr. George Daniel and Mr. Edwin Tenney share teaching responsibilities at the present time. Curriculum is the International Lesson Series. The class meets in Grumman Chapel.
- STACY BIBLE CLASS - A Bible class for ladies that meets in the East Parlor. This class is taught by Mrs. Frank Hanft, and uses as its curriculum resource the International Lesson Series. There are regular monthly meetings held in the homes of class members.
- SEMINAR ON CHRISTIAN THOUGHT - an established class of some years' standing. The teacher and discussion leader is Dr. Frank Hanft, distinguished UNC Professor of Law. Class discussion, using the new adult curriculum series, Foundation Studies in Christian Faith, as a basis, is the format of this class. The Seminar meets in the West Parlor.
- YOUNG ADULT SEMINAR - Primarily a discussion class with shared leadership, this class determines its organizational structure from an up-to date sounding of class wishes. Curriculum is also flexible, each unit of study being selected from several possibilities offered by the class curriculum committee. This class meets in the Bride's Room.
- YOUNG ADULT BIBLE CLASS - a lecture and discussion class focusing primarily upon Scriptures. There is a fifteen minute input from the teacher, followed by general discussion that attempts to draw parallels and inferences for modern everyday living. This class is taught by Langill Watson and meets in the Scout Room.
- THE STUDENT FORUM - a class for college students and other young adults. Meeting in the Tatum Room (2nd floor, Education Building), this is a discussion setting, with special resources often provided by faculty members and community leaders. A light breakfast is served.
- SHORT-TERM COURSES - Courses of several weeks duration and dealing with a specific area of interest will be planned upon request. Times other than Sunday mornings can be scheduled for the convenience of class members. Interest in a particular topic should be made known to the Adult Co-ordinator or to the Director of Christian Education.

AN HISTORICAL SKETCH OF UNIVERSITY UNITED METHODIST CHURCH

Methodism in Chapel Hill goes back to 1842 when University President Swain appointed Charles Force Deems of New Jersey to be adjunct professor of logic and rhetoric in the University. Mr. Deems, a Methodist layman, conducted Methodist services in various homes and in Jesse Hargrove's store on Franklin Street for some four years.

There was a lapse of a year or so without any services, until 1850, when Samuel Milton Frost, listed as a student in the University, served as pastor of the congregation. Upon graduation in 1852, Mr. Frost went on a tour of the state collecting funds for the construction of a Methodist Church in Chapel Hill. The campaign was successful and the first church building for Chapel Hill Methodists was completed in 1853. This building, still standing and in use, is located at the corner of Rosemary and Henderson Streets, now occupied by an architectural firm.

The first regularly appointed pastor of the charge was J.L. Fisher, who served the church, 1852-53.

A second building for the Methodist Church was constructed and occupied in 1889. This church stood on the location of the present education building and remained in use until the Eubanks Education Building was built. During World War II it was used as a USO center.

The church continued steadily in growth and service, both to the University and townspeople. During the ministry of Rev. Walter Patten, 1913-16, stirrings began for a third church building program, culminating in the construction of the present sanctuary building in 1925-26. A joint Commission made up of members from both N. C. Conferences and from the Chapel Hill Church presided over this program. The building cost $193,000.00, well over a hundred thousand dollars of which came from the Conferences and other sources. Final indebtedness was removed from the building in 1935 with a gift of $50,000.00 from Mr. James Grey of Winston-Salem.

The originally designed building was completed in 1962 with the construction of the Education Building at a cost of $190,000.00. The indebtedness was removed from this building in 1967 with a bequest of $50,000.00 from Mr. Paul Eubanks.

The church has had a unique ministry among Methodist churches in North Carolina. It was built by the cooperative effort of all the Methodists of North Carolina in cooperation with the local members of the church. It has ministered to townspeople, but has always been characterized by its ministry to the University community. Thousands of North Carolina citizens recall its part in their religious nurture while attending the University. In recent years the church has had an outstanding ministry to Chapel Hill teen-agers. In still more recent years, as Chapel Hill has become a retirement center, the church has been blessed by talents retired people have brought to its life from all across the country. In response to the needs posed by its widening program, an associate minister was added in 1966, and a Director of Christian Education was added in 1968. Optimism abounds as we look toward the years ahead.
